

Wages Creek

Wages Creek is meant to be read while listening to the audio book, which is available for download from audible.com. The author does all the voices, and wrote all the music. His wife, Karen Kiser, does all the illustrations. There was once a campground on the Northern California coast where a fresh, bubbling stream met the vast Pacific Ocean. The sandy beach was large, the grasses were tall and soft, three ducks had a problem, one man had a cold, and a horseshoe pit was in the middle of the solution. This is the story of a trip my family took to Wages Creek.
